THE HAWAII JUSTICE FOUNDATION 2018 ANNUAL REPORT

In 2018, the Hawaii Justice Foundation (HJF) experienced positive financial increases in key income areas. HJF faced many of the same financial difficulties faced by other charitable foundations during the years 2009 through 2016. HJF is very pleased to be able to report that 2017 and 2018 have been years of substantial improvement in HJF's income.

The Increase in the Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA) Interest Rates. HJF's primary source of income is through the Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA) Program. The amount of income from IOLTA varies directly with interest rates, which dropped from 5.25% in September 2007 to 0.25% in December, 2008. Starting in late 2015, the federal funds target rate has been increasing. Hawaii's banks have been cooperative in implementing these higher rates for IOLTA accounts, which has allowed HJF to increase its IOLTA grants. Sums distributed through IOLTA in recent years are: 2005, $70,000; 2006, $155,000; 2007, $278,000; 2008, $410,000; 2009, $345,000; 2010, $175,000; 2011, $152,050; 2012 $124,650; 2013 $104,000; 2014 $100,000; 2015 $125,000; 2016 $155,000; 2017 $207,500; and 2018 $362,500. For 2019, estimates for IOLTA awards are in excess of $600,000.

The Continuation of Funding from The Bretzlaff Foundation. In addition to IOLTA grants, each year HJF distributes a minimum of $100,000 to the ten Bretzlaff grantees, due to the generosity of The Bretzlaff Foundation of Reno, Nevada. In 2018, a total of $128,800 was awarded.

The Indigent Legal Assistance Fund (ILAF). ILAF is a process where surcharges are collected on certain filing fees in the State of Hawaii Judicial System. These funds are retained by the Judiciary for distribution to qualified low-income service providers under the statutory formula. From the inception of the Program, HJF has served as the ILAF Administrator. ILAF funds are distributed in cooperation with the Hawaii State Judiciary, the low-income service providers, and HJF. In FY 2018-19, ILAF will distribute $1,000,000 to eight legal services grantees. This is a critical part of funding for legal services, and the Legislature is to be commended for its creation of this valuable program.

Bank of America Settlement Funds. Hawaii was not part of the litigation with the Bank of America, but all states received financial benefits from the funds involved in the settlement with the Bank of America arising from the foreclosure crisis. HJF has received a total of $1,810,000 from this settlement, with the funds to be awarded to legal aid organizations for foreclosure prevention and community redevelopment legal assistance. Through 2018, approximately $1,600,000 will have been distributed.

The Cades Foundation. Each year in June, the Hawaii Access to Justice Commission hosts its Access to Justice Summit Conference held at the Richardson School of Law. The Cades Foundation has generously provided yearly financial support to HJF to provide funds for this event. The keynote speaker for 2018 was Chief Judge Robert A. Katzmann, United States Courts of Appeal, Second Circuit. More than 300 attended the event, and the Conference is always the highlight of access to justice activities.

Certainly we are all grateful that 2018 has shown economic improvement for HJF's income streams. Please be assured that HJF has sufficient operating income and reserves to ensure our continued ability to work for access to justice. We ask you to join with us in these efforts, and we are very optimistic for the financial outlook for 2019. Much work remains to be done to achieve the ideal and goal of achieving "justice for all."

2018-2019 ILAF PROGRAM

2018-19 ILAF Grants Total $1,000,000

The Indigent Legal Assistance Fund (ILAF) is a process where surcharges are collected on certain filing fees in the State of Hawaii Judicial System. These funds are retained by the Judiciary for distribution to qualified low-income service providers. The Hawaii Justice Foundation acts as Administrator for these funds. ILAF funds are distributed in cooperation with the Hawaii State Judiciary, the low-income service providers, and HJF.

The amount available in ILAF funds varies each year, depending upon the number of eligible cases filed and the rate of the surcharge. The ILAF program has seen significant growth from earlier years, due to the surcharge rate increase. In FY 2012-13, the amount distributed was $472,039; for FY 2013-14 $1,400,000; for FY 2014-15 $1,425,000; for FY 2015-16 $1,300,000; for FY 2016-17 $1,000,000; for FY 2017-18 $1,100,000; for FY 2018-19 $1,000,000.
